Upon request, the Employer will provide a copy of this agreement in an alternative format.

ARTICLE 2 – RECOGNITION

2.01 The University recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all office, clerical and technical employees of the University in the City of North Bay and regional campuses save and except the following:

- (a) Supervisors;
- (b) Positions above the rank of Supervisor;
- (c) Positions for whom more than 50% of the wage is funded from sources outside of the Ministry of Colleges and Universities (MCU) funding*;
- (d) Students employed during the academic year and working for less than 24 hours per week;
- (e) Students employed during the spring/summer vacation period;
- (f) Positions regularly employed for not more than twenty four (24) hours per week;
- (g) Positions excluded under the Ontario Labour Relations Act;
- (h) Positions employed in the offices of Human Resources and the President; and
- (i) Positions providing direct administrative support to the Vice-Presidents of Academic and Financial/Operations.

The employer agrees that persons engaged in temporary employment or persons employed in an excluded capacity referenced above will not adversely affect the rights of employees under this agreement.

Application of this article will commence upon signing of the agreement and will apply only to NEW positions, postings or competitions created after that date.

* Requests to the bargaining unit for exclusion of the positions in (c) above will be reviewed individually by the Director, Human Resources, or designate, and the Local 608 President, or designate.

- 2.02 Should any new position be established within the University which the University claims to be excluded from the bargaining unit, the question as to its inclusion in or exclusion from the bargaining unit shall be determined by mutual agreement or, in the absence of such agreement, by resort to the Labour Relations Board.

Prior to posting a new position, the University shall provide to the Local 608 President or designate a copy of the position description as well as rationale for its exclusion. The Local 608 President, or designate, will respond as soon as possible upon receipt of the information, advising the University of its agreement with the exclusion or, in the event it does not agree, with specific reason(s) as to why it does not agree. If the Union requires additional information in order to make a decision, the Local President, or designate, will request said information within two (2) working days of receipt of the original notice from the University. The University will provide the information within two (2) working days of receiving the request. If further clarification is required, a meeting will be scheduled. Such meeting must take place within the ten (10) day timeline as identified below.

In the event the University does not receive a determination from the bargaining unit within ten (10) working days of the original notice, the University may proceed to fill the position as an excluded position. This time period can be extended upon mutual agreement of the University and the Union.

- (c) Contract Employee designates an employee who is hired on a contract of employment for a specified term of more than eight (8) weeks to fill a position that is not excluded as per Article 2. Upon mutual agreement of the University and the Union, the twelve (12) month period may be extended.
- (d) Casual Employee designates an employee who is hired on a casual basis for a term of up to eight (8) weeks for the purpose of supplementing the current compliment of employees or for replacing a full-time employee on a short-term leave. - (b) The University agrees that there will be no lockout of employees during the life of this Agreement.
- 7.02 The words "strike" and "lockout" shall be defined as in the Labour Relations Act.
- 7.03 The University shall have the right to discharge or otherwise discipline employees who take part in or instigate any illegal strike, stoppage or slowdown, but a claim of unjust discharge or treatment may be the subject of a grievance and dealt with as provided in Articles 8 and 9.
- 7.04 The parties further agree that it will not involve any employee of the University or the University itself in any dispute which may arise between any other employer and the employees of such other employer. The restriction on employees shall not apply during time the employee is not scheduled to work provided the employee's activity does not adversely affect the University.
- 7.05 In the event that there is a strike of another bargaining unit within the University, the Employer agrees that it will not assign such work or tasks that are normally performed by the other bargaining unit to any members of this bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 8 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 8.01 For the purpose of this Agreement, a grievance is defined as a difference arising between the parties relating to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the Agreement including any question as to whether the matter is arbitrable.

8.02 It is the mutual desire of the parties that all complaints and grievances will be adjusted as quickly as possible. It is understood that any employee may present an oral complaint at any time to their immediate supervisor without resorting to the grievance procedures. Except where otherwise provided, it is understood that an employee has no grievance unless and until the matter is first discussed with the employee's immediate supervisor. Such complaint shall be discussed with the immediate supervisor within ten (10) working days from the event giving rise to the complaint or from the date the employee should have reasonably become aware of the event giving rise to the complaint. The immediate supervisor shall provide a decision regarding the complaint within five (5) working days of receiving the complaint from the employee. If upon receipt of the decision the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the employee, it may be grieved and disposed of in the following manner:

STEP 1

The employee shall submit a written grievance to their immediate supervisor. Such grievance shall be submitted within ten (10) working days of the occurrence of the event which gave rise to the grievance and must be signed by the employee claiming to be grieved at which time the matter will be discussed. The grievance shall cite the specific article of this contract which the grievor claims has been violated and shall also specify redress being sought. The employee may be accompanied by a Union steward if desired. The immediate supervisor shall submit their response in writing within seven (7) working days of filing of the grievance at Step 1. A copy of all correspondence pertaining to a grievance will be sent to the Director, Human Resources or designate and the Local 608 President or designate.

STEP 2

Failing settlement of the grievance at Step 1 or failure of the immediate supervisor to submit a response within the described period, the employee shall present the grievance in writing to the Director, Human Resources, or designate, within five (5) working days after the response is received or should have been received in Step 1. The Director, Human Resources, or designate, shall convene a meeting with the immediate supervisor, the grievor and their representative(s) to consider the grievance within five (5) working days (or at such other time as is mutually agreed upon by the parties) of the filing of the grievance at Step 2. Should the Director, Human Resources or the Local President determine that additional participants should attend the grievance meeting, they shall inform the parties at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting of the names of the additional participants.

The grievor shall be represented by the steward, and the grievor shall be present. It is understood that a staff representative of the Union may also attend at the request of either party. The Director, Human Resources, or designate, shall have ten (10) working days from the date of such meeting to render a decision.

- 8.03 It is expressly understood that an employee who has a complaint or a grievance shall follow the procedures as outlined in this Article, and pending the investigation and determination of the validity of such claim, shall continue to perform the duties assigned to them by their immediate supervisor (unless the employee has been suspended or discharged), providing such duties do not jeopardize the life, health or safety of the employee.
- 8.04 (a) The Union may file a "Policy Grievance" at Step 2 of the grievance procedure. A "Policy Grievance" may not be used to bypass the regular grievance procedure. A policy grievance is defined as one which alleges a misinterpretation or violation of a provision of this Agreement and which, because of the nature or scope of the subject matter, could not otherwise be instituted as an individual employee grievance commencing at Step 1. Such policy grievance shall be filed in writing within ten (10) working days of the initial incident giving rise to the complaint. The grievance must be signed by the Local President.
- (b) The University shall have the right to lodge a grievance with the Union concerning the meaning, application or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement commencing at Step 2 of the grievance procedure. The grievance shall be filed in writing within ten (10) working days of the initial incident giving rise to the complaint. A meeting shall be held between representatives of the University and the Union within seven (7) working days (or such other time as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties) of filing of the grievance. The grievance shall be answered in writing by the Union within ten (10) working days of such meeting.
- 8.05 An employee, other than a probationary employee, claiming that they have been discharged from employment without cause, shall file a signed, dated, written statement of such grievance setting out the nature of the grievance and the specific remedy sought at Step 2 of the grievance procedure providing such grievance is lodged with the Director, Human Resources, or designate, within five (5) working days of the discharge.

- 8.06 Saturday, Sunday and paid holidays shall not be considered in the calculation of time limits as outlined in this Article.
- 8.07 Any complaint or grievance which is not commenced or processed through the next stage of the grievance procedure within the time specified shall be deemed to have been dropped, and if commenced, considered to have been settled on the basis of the University's reply to the grievance. However, time limits specified in the grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement in writing between the University and the Union. If no written answer has been given to the grievance within the time limits specified, the employee shall be entitled to submit the grievance to the next stage including arbitration. In consideration of the mandatory nature of the time limits section 48(7) of the Labour Relations Act R.S.O. 1995 shall not apply to grievances involving lay off, suspension or discharge.
- 8.08 Any step of the grievance procedure may be waived by mutual agreement in writing between the University and the Union.
- 8.09 Decisions arrived at between the University, the employee and the Union on the disposition of any specific employee, Union or University grievance shall be final and binding upon the University, the Union and the employee or employees concerned.
- 8.10 If final settlement of the grievance is not reached at Step 2, then the grievance may be referred in writing by either party to arbitration as provided in Article 9 - Arbitration, at any time within ten (10) working days after the final decision is given in Step 2. If no such written request for arbitration is received within the time limits, then the grievance shall be deemed to have been abandoned.
- 8.11 Notices required to be in writing shall be deemed to be properly given if given orally or by telephone and confirmed by letter postmarked no later than the final day for giving notice.

ARTICLE 9 – ARBITRATION

- 9.01 Both parties to this Agreement agree that a properly constituted grievance as defined in Article 8 - Grievance Procedure, paragraph 8.01, which has been properly carried through all the requisite steps of the grievance procedure as outlined in Article 8 and which has not been settled or abandoned, may be referred to arbitration, at the written request of either of the parties thereto.

9.02 All agreements reached under the grievance procedure between the representatives of the Employer, the representatives of the Union and the grievor(s) will be final and will be considered resolved.

9.03 When either party requests that any matter be submitted to arbitration as provided in this Article, it shall make such request in writing addressed to the other party to this Agreement, and at the same time identify a choice for a sole arbitrator. Within ten (10) calendar days thereafter, the other party shall identify its' choice of a sole arbitrator. The parties may confer in an effort to seek agreement on a sole arbitrator, or where there is no agreement within a period of twenty (20) calendar days, the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario shall have the power to make such appointment upon application thereto by the party invoking the arbitration procedure.

Where a party prefers to use a full panel for arbitration, such panel shall be referred to as the Arbitration Board, and each side as noted above shall identify a nominee to the Arbitration Board. The parties shall attempt to agree upon a Chair. If they are unable to agree upon such a Chair within a period of twenty (20) calendar days, they shall then request the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario to appoint a Chair.

Each of the parties will bear the expense of its nominee, where necessary, and the parties will share equally the fees and expenses of the Chair of the Arbitration Board.

9.04 No person may be appointed as an Arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance, except as herein provided.

9.05 No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not been properly carried through all requisite steps of the grievance procedure.

9.06 The Arbitrator or Arbitration Board shall not be authorized to make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, or to alter, modify, add to or amend any part of this Agreement.

9.07 The proceedings of the arbitration hearing will be expedited by the parties. The decision of the majority, and where there is no majority, the decision of the Chair, will be final and binding upon the parties hereto and the employee(s).

- 9.08 The time limits set out in this article are mandatory and failure to comply strictly with such time limits, except by written agreement of the parties, shall result in the grievance being deemed to have been abandoned.
- 9.09 Notwithstanding the time limits as set out herein, in the interest of bringing the matter to an expeditious conclusion, where the decision or response is provided in less than the number of days provided above, any subsequent response will measure from the receipt of the response.
- 9.10 Employees who are summoned or subpoenaed and whose attendance is required at arbitration hearings shall receive permission to be absent from work with pay.
- 9.11 The Arbitrator or Arbitration Board shall be governed by the following provisions:
- (a) The Arbitrator or Arbitration Board shall hear and determine the grievance and issue a decision which is final and binding on the parties and upon any employee affected by it.
 - (b) The decision of the majority is the decision of the Arbitration Board, but if there is no majority, the decision of the Chair governs.
 - (c) The Arbitrator or Arbitration Board shall determine its own procedure but shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations.

ARTICLE 10 – SENIORITY

- 10.01 Seniority, as referred to in this Agreement, shall mean length of continuous full-time service in the employ of the University within the bargaining unit but adjusted to recognize any period of absence in which seniority was maintained but did not accumulate.
- 10.02 A newly hired employee shall be considered a probationary employee until the employee has worked continuously in the same position for a period of three (3) months. At the discretion of the University, and with notice to the Union, the probation period may be extended for a further three (3) month period. In such case, an evaluation of the employee's progress and performance shall be made at the end of the initial three (3) month period. The employee shall be notified in writing that the probationary period has been completed. If the probationary period is to be extended, both the employee and the Local 608 President or designate will be notified in writing by the Director, Human Resources or designate. During the probation period, the employee shall have no seniority rights and limited rights as set out in Article 2.04. It is expressly understood by both parties that during the probationary period, an employee shall be considered as being employed on a trial basis and may be discharged at any time at the sole discretion of the University. The discharge, lay-off or failure to recall after lay-off of a probationary employee shall not be the subject of a grievance and/or arbitration pursuant to this Agreement. If retained after the probationary period, the employee shall be credited with seniority accrued from their date of hire or in accordance with articles 10.09 and/or 10.10.

10.03 The University agrees to furnish to the Union and to distribute by e-mail by April 1, August 1 and December 1 of each year a current seniority list. Employees who have bona fide proof to challenge their seniority date shall present such proof within five (5) working days from the date their name first appears on a seniority list distributed via e-mail or within five (5) working days from the date that their seniority standing is adjusted as per 10.01. Failing such a challenge, seniority standings shall be deemed correct as contained on the University's records. Employees acquiring seniority on the same date shall be added to the seniority list in alphabetical order.

10.04 Seniority is the principle of granting preference to employees for promotions, non-disciplinary demotions, lay-offs, and rehire after lay-offs in accordance with the length of continuous full-time service with the University. In all cases, the following two (2) factors shall be considered by the University in determining which employee shall be affected:

(a) the skill, ability, experience and qualifications of the individual to perform the requirements of the job in a competent manner and the capability of the individual to assume responsibility.

(b) the seniority ranking of the employees affected.

When in the judgement of the University, which shall not be exercised in a discriminatory manner, the factor (a) is relatively equal as between two (2) or more employees, then and only then shall factor (b) govern.

10.05 An employee's seniority shall be forfeited and their employment shall be deemed to be terminated and there shall be no obligation to rehire under the following conditions:

- (a) the employee voluntarily resigns or quits. An employee shall be deemed to have resigned when:
 - (b) (i) the employee gives notice in writing of their desire to leave the University's employment;
 - (ii) the employee is absent without leave for three (3) consecutive working days during which time they have not contacted the Human Resources Department directly with a reason acceptable to the University when the employee has had an opportunity to do so. Proof of the matter is the responsibility of the employee;
 - (iii) the employee fails to report for work at the expiration of a leave of absence without reasonable justification satisfactory to the University, or an employee accepts gainful employment while on leave of absence without first obtaining the consent of the University in writing;
- (c) the employee retires;
- (d) the employee is discharged and not reinstated through the grievance procedure;
- (e) the employee is laid off for a period of twelve (12) months;
- (f) the employee fails to respond to a recall to work to their last known address or phone number on the University's records within five (5) days. The recall will be confirmed by Registered Letter. The onus is on employees to inform the University of their current address and telephone number;
- (g) the employee is absent from work for twenty-four (24) months due to accident or illness; or becomes totally and permanently disabled;
- (h) the employee utilizes a leave of absence for purposes other than that for which the leave of absence may have been granted.

10.06 Employees on lay-off will have their names retained on the seniority list for the purposes of recall only and during such lay-off seniority will not accrue.

10.07 Seniority shall be accumulated in the following circumstances only:

- (a) when absent from work due to sickness or accident in which case seniority will continue to accumulate for a period of twenty-four (24) months;
- (b) when off the payroll due to personal leave of absence, then seniority will continue to accumulate for six (6) months;
- (c) when working for the University outside the bargaining unit, then seniority will continue to accumulate for six (6) months;
- (d) when absent on vacation or on paid holidays;
- (e) when actually at work in a bargaining unit position for the University;
- (f) when absent on pregnancy and parental leave;
- (g) when absent on Union leave or any protected leaves under the Employment Standards Act and/or the Ontario Human Rights Code.

10.08 Seniority Rights – Less than 12 Month Positions

Where less than full time employment is identified prior to the time of hiring, the University may effect a lay-off for a period of up to but not greater than four (4) months in any employment year without regard to the provisions of Article 11 – Lay-Off and Recall. Notwithstanding the foregoing, seniority and service shall accumulate for all purposes under the Collective Agreement during such period of lay-off. This provision shall have no application where the employee in lieu of lay-off hereunder has been granted a leave of absence in which case Article 10.07 (b) shall have application.

10.09 When a part-time employee is successful in a job competition for a full-time bargaining unit position, the part-time employee will have their part-time seniority converted to years by dividing their part-time hours of work by 1820. Should a full-time employee be successful in a part-time job competition, or have their position reduced permanently to a part-time position, the full-time employee will have their full-time seniority converted to hours by multiplying their number of years of seniority by 1820.

10.10 When a contract employee is successful in a job competition for a full-time complement position, the contract employee will have their seniority converted to years by dividing their contract hours of work by 1820, provided there has not been a break in service.

- 10.11 Unbroken service is defined as service which is not interrupted by separation from employment with the University for periods that are greater than thirteen (13) weeks. It is understood that approved leaves and leaves covered under the Employment Standards Act and Ontario Human Rights Code will not be considered to be included in any calculation of break in service.

ARTICLE 11 – LAY-OFF AND RECALL

- 11.01 The University, where possible, will enter into discussions with the Union when contemplating lay-offs two months prior to the layoffs taking place. Once positions have been identified for lay-off, the University shall notify the Union as soon as possible or at least prior to the affected employee(s) being notified.

The University agrees to meet with the Union during this period, at the Union's request, to discuss potential layoff(s). The discussion will include the following:

- (a) the operational changes and/or other causes for the layoff;
- (b) possible alternatives to layoff(s);
- (c) the process of implementation; and
- (d) the manner in which the University may assist employees through the transition.

- 11.02 In determining when employees are to be laid off and recalled from lay-off, the University shall consider the following factors:

- (a) the seniority ranking of the employees affected;
- (b) the skill, ability and qualifications of the individual to perform the requirements of the job in a competent manner and the capability of the individual to assume responsibility.

- 11.03 There will be no lay-off of employees with seniority in a classification until all probationary, contract and casual employees within the same job class have been laid off or terminated.

11.04 Employees who are displaced and who cannot maintain their classification will have their rate "red-circled" (i.e. maintained at the current rate) and will not receive any further increases until the rate for the classification surpasses their "red-circled" rate. The period of red circling will be limited to twelve (12) months from the date of placement in the lower classification. While "red-circled", the employee shall also retain recall rights to their former position for twelve (12) months from the point of being displaced.

Application of this article will commence on February 9, 2018, and will apply only to employees whose rates are red-circled after that date.

Procedures for Lay-Off

11.05 All employees under potential notice of lay-off will be subject to one of the following three activities:

- (a) placed in a vacant position;
- (b) placed in a position occupied by a junior employee (as per Article 11.06 below); or
- (c) placed on the recall list.

11.06 In the event a position within the bargaining unit becomes redundant, or should a lay-off occur, the employee shall, in order of seniority, be placed in a vacant position or exercise bumping rights in the following order:

- (a) To fill a vacant position within the same classification. If there is no such position, then;
- (b) To fill the position held by the most junior employee within the same classification. All junior employees within that classification must be considered. If there is no such position, or the list of potential positions held by junior employees within the same classification has been exhausted, then;
- (c) To fill a vacant position within the next lowest classification. All junior employees within that classification must be considered. If there is no such position, or the list of potential positions held by junior employees within the next lowest classification has been exhausted, then;

- (d) To fill a position held by the most junior employee within the next lowest classification to the employee's own classification. If there is no such position, then;
- (e) The process is repeated until all classifications have been reviewed in descending order and either a vacant position or a position held by a more junior employee is identified. If no position exists, then the employee shall be placed on the recall list.
- (f) All employees displaced during the process outlined above will follow the same procedures to obtain a new position.

11.07 At each step of this process, it is the responsibility of the Director, Human Resources to inform the employee of their appropriate seniority and bumping rights.

An employee who has the right to displace another employee or to move to a vacant position shall have the right to the same training period as would typically be accorded to an employee under Article 13 – Trial Period. The University reserves the right to test employees to ensure they have the skill, ability and qualifications to perform the requirements of the job in a competent manner. The Local President and the University will mutually agree on the evaluation process.

11.08 The University will place an employee under notice of layoff in a position if they have the skill, ability, experience and qualifications to perform the requirements of the position. The member will be provided with a period of orientation and training of two (2) months to become familiarized with the new position.

11.09 Members will be afforded two (2) working days to either accept the offered position or to declare that they prefer to be placed on the recall list. The Director, Human Resources will consider requests for an extension to the two-day limit.

11.10 Notwithstanding the above, in order to assist in the limitation of the number of required layoffs or to minimize the effects of position redundancies, the University may, under 4.01(b), with notice to the Union, transfer members under potential notice of lay-off to like positions in areas of need or to select members under potential notice of lay-off in accordance of seniority and who meet the requirements of Article 11.08 for other vacant positions prior to beginning the lay-off procedures.

11.11 Severance Pay

- (a) Severance pay will be provided in accordance with the provisions of the Employment Standards Act. An employee who has been given a notice of layoff and has subsequently been laid off, or otherwise terminated, shall be entitled to severance pay in such amount.
- (b) An employee may elect, at any time during the recall period, to terminate their employment and receive severance pay. The employee's name will be removed from the recall list and the Employer will have no further obligation to the respective employee.

11.12 Recall

- (a) Employees who are laid off shall be placed on a recall list and shall retain but not accrue seniority for twelve (12) months.
- (b) The University shall recall employees in order of seniority to vacant bargaining unit positions in accordance with Article 11.08. Notice of recall shall be sent by registered mail to the employee's last known address, and the employee shall respond to the recall notice within five (5) business days of the receipt of such. If the employee does not respond within five (5) business days, they will be removed from the recall list.
- (c) An employee who is recalled and reinstated to a position with a lower rate of pay than the position occupied at the time of layoff shall be subject to Article 11.04.
- (d) The University will rehire employees from the recall list who are properly qualified for the available positions before hiring from the open market.
- (e) All employees who have been laid off and are on the recall list shall maintain their eligibility under the Tuition Subsidy Policy.

ARTICLE 12 – VACANCIES AND POSTINGS

- 12.01 (a) A full-time vacancy occurs when:
 - i) An existing full-time complement position is vacated by the incumbent on a permanent basis; or

ii) A new full-time complement position is established.

(b) A temporary vacancy occurs when:

i) An incumbent has vacated a permanent position for a specified period of time and the incumbent retains propriety rights to the vacant position;

ii) A non-recurring position is created for a special project or initiative or in response to an unexpected increased need in specific areas;

iii) The position is not to exceed twelve (12) months, except when hired as a specific replacement for an employee on pregnancy or parental leave, on WSIB or sick leave, or on another leave of absence as referenced in Article 14.

12.02 In selecting a candidate to fill a permanent or temporary vacancy which the University wishes to fill in the bargaining unit, the University shall consider:

(a) The skill, ability and qualifications of the individual to perform the requirements of the job in a competent manner and the capability of the individual to assume responsibility.

(b) The seniority ranking of the employees affected, if applicable.

12.03 When in the judgment of the University, which shall not be exercised in a discriminatory manner, the factor (a) is relatively equal as between two (2) or more employees, then and only then shall factor (b) govern.

12.04 The University maintains the right to fill vacancies at its discretion in accordance with the Collective Agreement. The Director, Human Resources or designate will notify the President of Local 608 or designate of its intentions regarding the filling of all vacant positions.

12.05 Filling Full-time Vacancies

(a) The University agrees that notices shall be posted for a period of seven (7) working days for all full-time vacancies in the bargaining unit.

(b) The University shall not consider any external applicants before first considering and/or interviewing those applications which are received from seniority employees in the bargaining unit and/or from a part-time bargaining unit employee with more than 355 hours of service who currently holds the position. If no such member possesses the necessary overall qualifications, the University shall subsequently consider first those applicants from the employees in the part-time bargaining unit who have passed their probationary period; and then from a contract employee who has fifteen (15) months of continuous service.

- (c) After all applications from bargaining unit employees have been received and it is determined that none possesses the necessary overall qualifications, the vacancy may be filled from outside the bargaining unit.
- (d) Where the job is filled from inside the bargaining unit through the job posting procedure, the University will pay the successful applicant at their new rate within thirty (30) days from the date of the appointment and will endeavour to move the successful applicant within sixty (60) days of the appointment.
- (e) When the job posting procedure does not result in the filling of a position, the Director, Human Resources or designate shall notify the President of Local 608 or designate within 60 days of the closing of the posting. This timeline may be extended by mutual agreement.

12.06 Filling Temporary Vacancies

- (a) The University may fill vacant positions or new positions on a temporary basis (six months or less) at its discretion.
- (b) All vacancies that extend beyond six (6) months will be posted and filled through the competitive bid process unless otherwise agreed to by the parties.
- (c) Where an employee is the successful applicant in a temporary vacancy within the bargaining unit, they shall be guaranteed a return to their home position at the conclusion of the temporary vacancy.
- (d) The University may fill vacant or new positions on a temporary basis with Contract Employees.
- (e) The University may fill vacant or new positions on a casual basis for up to eight (8) weeks with Casual Employees.

12.07 Temporary Assignments Within the Bargaining Unit

- (a) All temporary assignments shall be pre-approved by the Director, Human Resources, or designate.
- (b) An employee who is temporarily assigned to perform a higher rated position, other than for vacations, for a minimum of five (5) working days shall be paid at least one step higher than their present rate, commencing on the first day of the new assignment.
- (c) An employee who is temporarily assigned to perform a lower rated position shall continue to be paid their current rate for the duration of such assignment.
- (d) An employee who is temporarily assigned higher or lower related duties within the bargaining unit will be provided an outline, in writing, of the expected duties and the duration of the temporary assignment.
- (e) Temporary assignments within the bargaining unit will be reviewed by the Director, Human Resources, or designate, and the Local President every three (3) months up to the end of the assignment, and shall not exceed twelve (12) months without mutual agreement.

12.08 Temporary Assignments Outside of the Bargaining Unit

- (a) All temporary assignments shall be pre-approved by the Director, Human Resources, or designate.
- (b) An employee may refuse to accept a temporary assignment which falls outside the bargaining unit.
- (c) Employees may temporarily be assigned some duties that would normally be performed by positions outside of the bargaining unit, while maintaining most of their work from their original bargaining unit position.
- (d) An employee who is temporarily assigned to perform duties that fall outside of the bargaining unit, other than for vacations, for a minimum of five (5) working days shall be paid at least one step higher than their present rate, coming on the first day of the temporary assignment.

- (e) Temporary assignments outside of the bargaining unit will be reviewed by the Director, Human Resources, or designate, and the Local President every three (3) months up to the end of the assignment, and shall not exceed twelve (12) months without mutual agreement.

- (g) Employees who accept a temporary full transfer of duties outside of the bargaining unit and/or accept a temporary contract that falls outside of the bargaining unit shall continue to accrue seniority and pay Union dues based on the wage of their temporary assigned position for up to six (6) months while filling the temporary position.
- (h) Members working outside the bargaining unit for the employer as outlined in 12.08 (g) for more than six (6) months will cease to accrue seniority within this bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 13 – TRIAL PERIOD

- 13.01 In the event the successful applicant is a fulltime staff member of the bargaining unit, then they shall be placed on trial for a period of two (2) months. In the event the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory in the position during the trial period, or if the employee chooses not to remain in the new position, they shall be returned to their former position and wage rate without loss of seniority. The Human Resources department will notify the employee in writing of the successful or unsuccessful completion of the two month trial period within five (5) working days of the end of the trial period. If the employee chooses not to stay in the new position, they will notify the Director, Human Resources or designate within five (5) working days of the end of the trial period.

ARTICLE 14 – LEAVES OF ABSENCE

- 14.01 The University may grant leave of absence with or without pay at its discretion. Such leave shall be for a stated period and shall not normally exceed twelve (12) months. All leaves of absence shall be applied for in writing to the Director, Human Resources, or designate, who shall respond in writing.

14.02 Employees who are on leave of absence for any reason will not engage in gainful employment while on such leave, and if an employee does engage in gainful employment while on such leave without the written consent of the University, they will forfeit all seniority rights and shall be deemed terminated.

14.03 Bereavement Leave

(a) Bereavement leave will be allowed in the event of a death in the immediate family of an employee's parent, spouse, common-law spouse, child, brother, sister, mother-in-law, father-in-law, step-child, step-parent, grandchild or grandparent, of up to five (5) working days without loss of pay. A common-law spouse shall be defined as one who cohabitates for twelve (12) consecutive months. In the event of death in the distant family of a brother-in-law, sister-in-law, aunt, uncle, niece or nephew, or the grandparent of the employee's spouse, one (1) working day shall be allowed with pay. Reasonable traveling time, as determined by the Director, Human Resources, or designate, may be allowed with or without pay.

In the event of the death of an individual whose relationship to an employee is not defined above but the impact of which is comparable, a request may be submitted to the Director, Human Resources, for consideration of bereavement leave, the duration of which will be determined based on the circumstances.

(b) Where bereavement leave in accordance with this Article occurs during an employee's vacation period, the employee may substitute bereavement leave for the period in question provided that the employee contacts their supervisor during the vacation period and provides evidence satisfactory to the supervisor. The employee would then be eligible to schedule the unused portion of their vacation at a later date.

14.04 Jury Duty

An employee who is called for Jury Duty will receive paid leave at full pay less the amount of the jury fee received as outlined by the Ministry of the Attorney General. The employee must furnish the University with their jury duty summons. Where an employee is on call for Jury Duty and where not required after twelve (12) o'clock (noon), the employee will report for work to complete the balance of the day. The subpoena for jury duty shall be given to the attendance monitor of the respective department so it can be attached to the monthly attendance report.

14.05 Witness

An employee who is subpoenaed to a court of law as a witness (excludes arbitrations and labour board hearings) will be granted the necessary time off without loss of regular pay. The employee will pay to the University any fees received less the portion applicable for travel and meal expenses. Where an employee is not required to attend at court after twelve (12) o'clock (noon), the employee will report for work to complete the balance of the day.

14.06 (a) Pregnancy and Parental Leave

Leave of absence for pregnancy shall be granted in accordance with the Employment Standards Act.

On request, in writing, leave of absence, without accumulation of seniority, pay or benefits, beyond that provided under the Employment Standards Act may be granted to an employee on pregnancy and parental leave up to a maximum leave (including leave available under the legislation) of seventy-eight (78) weeks. The University, in considering any request for an extension in pregnancy and parental leave in excess of that provided under the legislation, shall give consideration to any medical or other relevant reasons.

Seniority shall continue to accumulate for the duration of the pregnancy and parental leave. At the employee's option, they may, by written notice to the University, elect to pay for the employee portion of the premium package of benefits. In such case, the University will continue to pay its portion of the premium cost for the benefits set out in Article 18.01 for the duration of the pregnancy and parental leave.

At the employee's option, they may elect to continue pension contributions, based on either their nominal salary or on the supplementary employment insurance benefit. In such case, the University will continue to match the employee's contribution as set out in Article 19 for the duration of the pregnancy and parental leave.

On returning from Pregnancy and/or Parental Leave, the employee will be placed in their former position or in a position equivalent to their former position.

(b) Supplementary Employment Top Up Benefit

An employee entitled to pregnancy leave under this Article who provides the University with proof that they have applied for and are eligible to receive Employment Insurance (EI) benefits pursuant to the Employment Insurance Act, will be paid an allowance in accordance with Supplementary Employment top up benefit. In respect of the period of pregnancy leave, payments made according to Supplementary Employment top up benefit will consist of the following:

 - ii) up to a maximum of sixteen (16) additional weeks, payments equivalent to the difference between the sum of weekly EI benefits the employee is eligible to receive and any other earnings received by the employee, and ninety-five (95%) percent of the actual salary for the rank which they were receiving on the last day prior to the commencement of the pregnancy leave.

 - (ii) An employee who provides the University with proof that they continue to be eligible to receive Employment Insurance (EI) benefits pursuant to the Employment Insurance Act as amended will be paid, for fourteen (14) weeks, the difference between the sum of weekly EI at the standard rate of fifty-five (55%) percent and ninety-five (95%) percent of the rate of pay they were receiving on the last day prior to the commencement of the leave.

- (iii) The employee may also request approval to utilize any accumulated vacation entitlement.

(c) Parental Leave for the Parent Who Has Not Given Birth/Adoption Leave

According to the Employment Standards Act after thirteen (13) weeks of continuous employment, an employee is entitled to parental leave if they claim the status of primary caregiver.

- i) Parental Leave will commence no later than seventy-eight (78) weeks after the child is born or came into the employee's custody, care and control for the first time.
- ii) An employee who provides the University with proof that they have applied for and are eligible to receive employment insurance benefits shall be paid, for the first week, payments equivalent to ninety-five (95%) percent of the rate of pay for their classification which they were receiving on the last day worked prior to the commencement of the parental leave, and
 - (i) The employee may elect to make application for Employment Insurance (EI) for one of the following:
 - i. The standard rate of parental benefits at fifty-five (55%) percent (or a maximum determined by Service Canada) for up to thirty-five (35) weeks; or
 - ii. Extended parental leave benefits at thirty-three (33%) percent (or a maximum determined by Service Canada) for up to sixty-three (63) weeks.
 - (iii) An employee who provides the University with proof that they continue to be eligible to receive Employment Insurance (EI) benefits pursuant to the Employment Insurance Act will be paid, for thirteen (13) weeks, the difference between the sum of weekly EI at the standard rate of fifty-five (55%) percent and ninety-five (95%) percent of the rate of pay they were receiving on the last day prior to the commencement of the leave.
- iv) On returning from parental leave, the employee will be placed in their former position or in a position equivalent to their former position. If the position does not exist, Article 11.05 and 11.06 will prevail.

- v) Seniority will continue to accumulate during the period of parental leave.
- vi) For the duration of the parental leave, the University will continue to pay its portion of the benefit costs unless the employee has advised the University in writing that they do not wish to make the required employee contributions.
- vii) If additional leave is required, the employee may request unpaid leave or utilize their accumulated vacation entitlement.
- viii) After fourteen (14) weeks (weeks 15-63), the employee will not receive pay from the University. The University will continue to pay its portion of the benefit costs unless the employee has advised the University in writing that they do not wish to make the required employee contribution. The employee shall pay their portion of the benefit premium during the period of leave if their benefits are to be continued.

14.07 Absent Without Permission

If an employee does not report to work because of illness or any other reason and fails to notify their supervisor or the Human Resources Office, in the event the supervisor is unavailable, during the first day of absence, the employee will be considered as absent without permission and the days lost will be deducted from their pay. If an employee is absent without permission three (3) days during any two (2) month period, they will be given a written warning. An employee will be liable for dismissal after a second warning. If an employee is absent without permission for three (3) consecutive working days, they will be considered as having left the service of the University.

14.08 Marriage Leave

A seniority employee will be allowed marriage leave of three (3) working days without loss of pay.

14.09 Medical/Dental Appointments

An employee who has a medical or dental appointment or who requires time off for other medical reasons, having obtained permission from their supervisor, shall be granted such time. Whenever possible, appointments should be scheduled early in the morning, during lunch or late in the afternoon so as not to interfere with regularly scheduled work.

14.10 Paid Leave Benefits

Subject to the terms of the benefit plans, the University agrees to pay its portion of the premium for employee benefits as provided in this Agreement while an employee is on a paid leave of absence. The employee shall similarly pay their portion of the premium.

14.11 Unpaid Leave Benefits

Subject to the terms of the benefit plans, excluding short-term disability and long-term disability, an employee shall be allowed to continue enrolment in all employee benefit plans at their own expense while on an unpaid leave of absence.

Employees are not eligible to participate in the pension plan while on an unpaid leave of absence.

14.12 Union Leave

The cumulative total leave of absence under (a) and (b) shall not exceed twenty (20) days per year. If there are specific situations that arise, the Local President may submit a request to the Director, Human Resources, to consider an increase to the twenty (20) day limit. The decision of the Director, Human Resources, to approve or deny these additional days is not grievable.

(a) Union Leave – Salary Continuance

Leave of absence without pay may be granted to attend Union conventions or conferences. The Union shall reimburse the University for wage and benefit costs.

The University will allow salary continuance for approved leave(s) for members upon receipt of pre-approval by OPSEU. The University will prepare the invoice for reimbursement for wage and benefits costs for the leave and submit the invoice to the appropriate OPSEU office for reimbursement. OPSEU will endeavor to reimburse the University for wage and benefit costs associated with the leave within one month (30 days) of receipt of the invoice. The University will request status updates for any overdue invoices.

The University has the right to discontinue salary continuance for nonpayment of invoices.

Such leaves without pay will only be granted in situations where no additional cost or burden shall be borne by the University or the department. The parties are encouraged to provide a plan to ensure that operational requirements are met.

(b) Union Leave – Without Pay

The University shall endeavour to grant a leave of absence without pay for any member of the bargaining unit for the purpose of attending conferences or seminars related to activities of the Union. Such leaves without pay will only be granted in situations where no additional cost or burden shall be borne by the University or the department.

A request for such leave will be submitted by the Local 608 President, or designate, on behalf of the member, to the member's immediate supervisor with a copy to the Director, Human Resources, or designate, as soon as possible, but no later than ten (10) working days in advance. The supervisor will consult with the Director, Human Resources, before any approval for such leave is granted. The parties are encouraged to provide a plan to ensure that operational requirements are met. These requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

No more than four (4) employees shall be absent on Union Leave [(a) and/or (b) above] at the same time. No more than two (2) employees shall be absent on Union Leave [(a) and/or (b) above] at the same time. In special circumstances, the Local President may submit a request to the Director, Human Resources for an exception to this limit.

Union Leave

- (a) An employee who is elected as a member of the Board of OPSEU or selected for a full-time position with the Union, shall be granted leave of absence without loss of seniority and without pay for the duration of the current term of office.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING RE: MARKET VALUE ADJUSTMENT

NIPISSING UNIVERSITY

ONTARIO PUBLIC SERVICE EMPLOYEES UNION
LOCAL 608 FULL-TIME

The parties agree to the following with regard to MARKET VALUE ADJUSTMENT:

The parties agree that the University may, in its discretion, develop and implement market value adjustment, as the need arises, for selected job classes within the bargaining unit.

A market value adjustment shall adhere to the following criteria:

1. Market value adjustments shall be used for a specific purpose (e.g. recruitment and/or retention) and shall be for a specific and limited period of time. As such, market value adjustments shall be treated as non-base salaries.
2. Market value adjustments shall be paid on a quarterly basis on the first (1st) pay date after the completion of the quarter.
3. An eligible employee shall receive quarterly adjustments (one-time lump sum payments) provided that they continue active employment in their position for each of the quarters.

An eligible employee who commences employment with the University during a quarter shall have their non-base market adjustments for the quarter pro-rated accordingly (i.e. relative to the length of time they are employed during the quarter).

An eligible employee who resigns from the University within the quarter shall not be eligible to receive the applicable market value adjustment, even on a pro-rated basis.

The market value adjustment shall have no impact on the level of the employee's salary nor on the employee's level of benefits.

4. Each market value adjustment will document the following:
 - (a) the rationale for the market value adjustment; e.g. skills shortage and high demand for a specific set of competencies, skills or professions
 - (b) the specific job class(es) eligible for consideration by the market value adjustment
 - (c) labour market information related to the market value adjustment
 - (d) the value of the market value adjustment
5. If the University determines that a market value adjustment is necessary for a specific job class(es), requests for consideration will be made at the departmental level, but shall require the authorization and approval of the Director, Human Resources & Employee Relations before consideration at the University level.
6. Once the University develops a market value adjustment and related criteria, the Union shall be provided with an opportunity to review and provide feedback related to 4(a)-(d) delineated above. The University shall seriously consider advice and feedback received from the Union. The Union shall be provided with a copy of the market value adjustment and the attendant procedures.
7. Once a market value adjustment is implemented, the adjustment shall be reviewed annually to determine if the adjustment should continue, discontinue or requires changes.
8. In the event that a decision is made by the University to discontinue the program in its entirety, the University shall provide both the Union and affected employees with a three (3) month notice of discontinuation of the market value adjustment.
9. In the event that the value of the annual market value adjustment is reduced, the individual employee affected will be provided with a two (2) week notice of such reduction.
10. The parties agree that the market value adjustment and any and all issues surrounding development, implementation, application, administration and termination shall not become the subject matter of a grievance (policy or individual) and shall not become the subject matter to which an Arbitrator or Arbitration Board has jurisdiction.
